Code of Conduct

CODES OF CONDUCT FOR PLAYERS, PARENTS/SPECTATORS AND COACHES.

FOR PLAYER'S: obligations towards the game

- Players should make every effort to develop their own abilities in terms of skill, technique, tactics and stamina. They must never criticise any team mate's skills or technique.
- Give maximum effort and strive for the best possible performance during a game even if the team is in a position where the desired result has already been achieved. Accept success and failure, victory and defeat, equally and always shake hands with the other team and match official at the end of the game.
- Set a positive example for all others and always have regard to the best interests of the game.
- Do not use inappropriate language or gestures.
- Make every effort consistent with Fair Play and the Laws of the Game to help your own team win but you must avoid all forms of gamesmanship, and time-wasting.
- Resist any influence which might, or might be seen to, bring into question your commitment to the team winning.
- Treat opponents with due respect at all times by safeguard the physical fitness of opponents, avoid violence and rough play, and help injured opponents irrespective of the result of the game.
- Know and abide by the Laws, rules and spirit of the game, and the competition rules.
- Show due respect and accept the decisions of the Match Official without protest.

- Abide by the instructions of your club officials, provided they do not contradict the spirit of this code. You must show respect towards your club's officials, your opponent's club officials and all supporters.
- Make sure you know the club's Protection Officer and their full contact details.
(2006's – Kate Kirk / 2007's – Matthew Strutt / 2008's Paulo Ferreira / Club Child Protection Contact – Thomas McKenna)
- Talk to the club's Protection Officer or another club official that you trust if you are unhappy about anything at the club.
- Players should not at any time take part in any inappropriate dialogue on any social networking website such as Twitter/Facebook. This includes comments made against any other player, official, club and referee.

I agree to abide by the principles contained within this code of conduct.

I support the club in its undertakings and encourage the club to take any necessary actions where warranted against any player, club official, coach, parent and/or spectator for any breach of this code of conduct.
